Change in Duni Management Team

Franck Bancarel assumes the position of Director Business Area Meal Service.

Franck Bancarel is appointed new Director Business Area Meal Service. He will take over from Linus Lemark who has taken over as Director Business Area Table Top since January this year. Franck has been employed at Duni since 2006 and comes from various positions within Sales. Most recently he had the role as Director Meal Service South & West Europe, which also includes responsibility for BioPac UK. Franck will start his new position immediately but also maintain his current responsibilities until a successor is found. Simultaneously, Franck will also join the Duni Management Team.

“I welcome Franck to the Management Team and his new position. During the past couple of years Franck has been a strong contributor to the positive development of the Meal Service Business Area. Internal recruitments from our global organization is important to keep talent within Duni and this promotion also contributes to a more international Management Team”, says Johan Sundelin, President and CEO.
